

The Glory of Catholic Architecture: Temple, Church and Heaven

“Join Dr. Denis McNamara, faculty member of the Liturgical Institute of Mundelein Seminary, for an illustrated talk which examines the deep meaning of liturgical art and architecture.

Monday
March 1, 2010
7:00 PM

MC Chapel

All are welcome to attend!

Discover how Temple precedents in the Old Testament provided an architectural theology fulfilled by Christ, and how today's church buildings give a foretaste of our future in heaven.

Learn to "read" Saints Peter and Paul Church in light of salvation history and the promises of Christ.”

DENIS R. MCNAMARA is Assistant Director and Faculty Member of the Liturgical Institute at University of St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein Seminary. He is author of the recently published, “Catholic Church Architecture and the Spirit of the Liturgy.”

