God's Chosen People in Egypt

Reflect upon the life of Joseph in Egypt.

Jacob had a special love for Joseph and this made Joseph's brothers jealous. On top of that, Joseph had special dreams saying his brothers would bow down before him. His brothers came to hate him, so they sold him into slavery in Egypt. Joseph became the governor of Egypt and saved Egypt from a famine. Joseph's brothers, however, were afflicted by the famine and came to buy grain from Joseph. Without recognizing Joseph, they bowed down before him. Joseph had forgiven his brothers, and invited his whole family to come and live in Egypt. They grew in number rapidly and soon became feared by the Egyptians who worshipped different gods.
