2. Adam and Eve did not know evil, pain, or suffering.

3. Before the Fall, Adam and Eve did not have to labor.

4. They did not have to die.

5. They lived in the Garden of Eden.

After the Fall

1. Adam and Eve no longer had God's life and could not go to heaven.

2. After the Fall, they were sad and knew evil. They also suffered.

3. After the Fall, they had to work very hard, even for food.

4. They would die and their bodies would return to dust.

5. They had to leave the Garden of Eden and needed a Savior in order to go to heaven.

Name: _____

Jesus Christ, the New Adam

The New Adam, Jesus Christ, passed the test for all of us. He died on the Cross in order to bring us new life through Baptism. Reflect on Jesus as the New Adam by using the pictures below.

Name: _____

The Fall from Grace

Because of his sin Adam lost God's friendship and special gifts. Fill in the chart below by describing Adam and Eve before and after their fall from grace.

Before the Fall	After the Fall

Sin not only affects men, but also the world around us. Compare the world before and after the Fall.

Before the Fall	After the Fall

Why does God allow suffering to exist?
