

Scripture – Luke 24:1-6

But at daybreak on the first day of the week they took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were puzzling over this, behold, two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.

Reflection

We are truly an Easter people; we are communities defined by hope, hope not only for ourselves but also for the transformation of the world. We are called to share this hope through solidarity and witnessing to the Good News that transformation of this world is possible. We ourselves are the possibilities that the Risen Lord has given to the world.

Prayer

Lord of Resurrection, with faith we are witnesses to the impossible: you have risen!

With hope, we recognize wild possibilities in our hearts and in our communities: we are called to transform this world through your grace.

With joy, we will make ready to celebrate the Easter season and the new life ahead.
